CONDITION OF THE MARKETS

Failure of S. V. White & Co., an Old New York Firm, Furnishes a Sensation.

Fatal Ending of the Attempt to Corner September Maize-Wheat Ranges About 2 Cents Lower and Corn Tumbles to 48 1-8 Cents.

MONEY, STOCKS AND BONDS. Rates Were High, Loans Being Made at 12

Per Cent, and 25 Was Bid. NEW YORK, Sept. 22 .- Money on call was close, ranging from 5 to 12 per cent., the last loan being made at 7, closing with no offerings at 25 per cent. bid. Prime mercantile paper 51/207 per cent. Sterling exchange was active and steady at $4.801/2 for sixty-day bills and $4.831/2 for demand.

The total sales of stocks to-day were 625,220 shares, including the following: Atchison, 76,807; Canadian Southern, 5,700; Chicago Gas, 10,450; Delaware, Lackawana & Western, 18,980; Erie, 15,178; Louisville & Nashville, 11,200, Missourt Pacific, 26,103; Northwestern, 7,318; North American, 31,-590; Northern Pacific, 25,630; Northern Pacific preferred, 26,596; Reading, 38,060; Richmond & West Point, 8,110; Texas & Pacific, 3,115; St. Paul, 58,260; Union Pacific,

84,529; Western Union, 7,163; Wabash, 3,170. The stock market for the first time in many weeks actually showed a reactionary temper to-day, and most of the stocks traded in are lower than last evening as the result of the day's operations. When it was announced that the old and powerful firm of S. V. White & Co. was unable to meet its engagements there was a rush to sell, but when it was explained that the failure was entirely on account of a deal in corn, and had nothing to do with the stock market a better feeling was seen. The buying was checked for the time being, however, and the "bears" went in to make tion to this considerable manipulation of money rates to-day, and loans were made as high as 12 per cent., while all offerings were withdrawn at the close, and bidders were offering 25 per cent., though this was after tenders had withdrawn from the exchange and every one who really wanted to borrow had been supplied. The "bears" used their most strenuous efforts to force values lower, but a good demand confronted them at every decline, and prices yielded very slowly after the first scare in the early dealings. The market opened at irregular changes from last evening's prices, and while Union Pacific was up 1 kg. Northwestern was down 4 per cent. The active stocks were more prominent than usual of late, and the losses were remarkably uniform, ranging generally from 1 to 2 per cent., the latter in Reading. Among the specialties, however, there were some sharp advances, and the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis common rose 4 per cent., and the preferred nearly 3, retaining most of the improve-ment at the close. More confidence was shown in the afternoon, but the raily was confined to fractional amounts. Sugar was especially weak. The market finally closed heavy after the rally, with most stocks at near the lowest prices of the day. The final changes of note included declines: Atchison, 11s; Missouri Pacific and Reading, 14; Sugar, 14; Big Four, Burlington, Northwest, Lake Shore, New England and Wheeling each, 1 per cent. Cordage

Was up 14.
Railroad bonds were quiet, the sales reaching only $1,642,000, while the tone of the dealings was barely firm and no material changes occurred among the active

TRADING AT CHICAGO.

Hutchinson's Prediction, that Corn Would Fall Below 50 Cents, Holds Good. CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—The simultaneous announcement on the New York Stock Exchange and the Chicago Board of Trade of the failure of the long-established, wellknown and wealthy New York commission firm of S. V. White & Co., with its branch house at Chicago, at the opening of business this morning, overshadowed all other items of news, and caused instant demoralization in all of the trading pits, including grains and hog products. The panie was shortlived, however, and, after a partial recovery, the markets became comparatively steady, though generally at a lower range than that of yesterday, and the pits assumed their normal appearance. Nevertheless, the feeling was very pervous and the tone weak, and traders were on tip-toe, ready to run at the first sign of danger. Rumor was more or less busy with the names of one or two prominent local houses who were known to have executed large commissions for the broken firm, but they proved groundless. When the clearinghouse shot came out at noon it showed no one in default except White & Co. Corn was most affected, as it was in an attempt to corner the September and October futures of that cereal that the broken firm was forced to the wall. December wheat started with sales at anywhere between 9834 @9914c, against $1.0058 at the close yesterday, but as sales for account of the broken firm were not heavy the market rallied, gradually, to 99%c. The feeling was nervous and, on receipt of a cable saying that the Berlin market was demoral ized and 4c lower, broke to 99c; it rallied to 997sc, broke again to 99c and closed easy at that price.

Corn opened tumultously excited with sales all the way from 4712c to 4912c, against 51 se at the close yesterday. Brokers who had deals with White & Co. made haste to close them out. The offerings were immense, being absorbed chiefly by receivers and shippers, but the market stood well at the reduction under the immense load of offerings, and after a time advanced to 49%c. The market fluctuated for some time between 49@49bc, then advanced to 49bc, and closed at 49%c. September, in which the main deal was, closed yesterday at 524c. It opened to-day at 4812@50c, and touched 484c, but closed at 49 sc. Oats were quiet and weak in sympathy with corn, but closed steady at a reduction of only is @ 'ac compared with yesterday. Hog products were less affected than wheat and corn, as White & Co. had only small lines in them, and after fluctuating within a moderate range closed with insignificant changes from yesterday's last prices. The leading futures ranged as folbest method for slacking lime to be used for fertilizing or decomposing purposes? "What should be used for spreading it? I intend to use it on low, loamy, prairie soil." When used for decomposing (composting) purposes the process is as follows: The various materials, some wet and some dry. are placed in layers of several inches thick and roughly mixed together. The lime is mixed in layers through the mass; or the mixture is more properly made and the heap built up compactly and well trodden into a square, flat pile, having the top somewhat shallow to catch and retain the forking or shoveling it over and forming a | wheat. The exposure to the air and the fresh mingling of the substances soon produce a new fermentation and heat by which the mass is still more decomposed. In a few months-and sooner in the summer-the compost becomes a homogeneous mass. Matching Horses,

Galen Wilson, in Practical Farmer. Matching borses for market is a profitable field for effort to those who have natural inclination that way and have taken pains to learn all about horses that they can. Probably not more than one in several thousand can tell whether two horses will match or not by only seeing them separately. Still, there are others who can do it. To qualify one for this, long and close observations are necessary, as also to learn the anatomy of the horse and to study all of the available horse literature. Such was the man who furnished President Cleveland with that famous "seal-brown" team. There are 1,800.00 plenty of horses in the country which can be bought for $200, $300 or $400 singly, which, when matched, could be sold as a team to fire companies, wealthy men and to Cubans for from $1,000 to $5,000, and many dealers are doing it now. But the dealer should be able to match 925.00 without putting the animals together. Should be take a horse with him and match another in the bands of its owner, the latter would most likely put on a price which would be "way up in the pictures." To commence the study of horses, first learn to be a correct judge of their dimensions, their height, length, distance from knee 2,550.00 and gambrel to ground, from the former to top of withers and latter to hip-joint and spinal column, width between the eyes, length of tail and weight of careass, cirflank, length and breadth of boof. These and a thousand other points are to be considered. Learn from books what full development or otherwise of the various points means. A handy tape-line should be carried in the pocket and animals be weighed as opportunity offers. Some horses naturally carry their heads high and some low, some in and some out. A team may An Illinois reader writes: "What is the match well in every other respect, but if they do not carry their heads and tails alike it is a mismatch. Judging borses correctly is "a trade" to be learned, but when acquired it is a valuable one, provided it is put in practice for profit.

It is important to sow clean seed. If one has smutty wheat his seed should be treated to a solution of blue vitrol, or strong brine or copperas water. If the seed wheat is poured into a tub of the solution the smutty wheat will rise. The heavy wheat should be spread out to dry, or can be dried with plaster before sowing. It is so easily held in check that one need never have it two years in succession if care is taken to sow only clean seed. Rotation 18 advantageous, too; that is, it is safest not to sow a field twice in succession with

As a speaker at one of the New York dairy-schools said: A cow with an udder full of milk is always standing still or lying down, chewing the cud. No one ever saw a diary cow dancing round in pursuit
